Barrett Jackson Under the Big Top

Craig Calls, They Come!

The 2007 Barrett Jackson Auction is without a doubt, scary. I don't know how many times I will predict continued success, but you can bank on one thing: when Craig Jackson calls, they come, they bring, they buy, they watch, they scratch their head and they hear the auctioneers sing SOLD-SOLD-SOLD, music to the ears of the 300,000 car aficionados from around the world who attend.
